New Zealand

New Zealand is in the South Pacific Ocean, a long way from anywhere. Australia is the closest country and that's two thousand kilometres away. New Zealand is isolated and this makes it special. This isolation changes everything – New Zealand's history, the weather, the way its people are and the trees, flowers and animals that you can see.

New Zealand is made up of two large islands – the North Island and the South Island, and a much smaller island, Stewart Island. It is about the same size as the United Kingdom, but it has only four million people. The United Kingdom has sixty-one million people. There are almost a million young people under fifteen in New Zealand. The main language of New Zealand is English. New Zealand was once part of the British Empire and still has the British flag as part of its own flag. The weather in New Zealand is never usually really hot or really cold, but it is hotter on the North Island where most people live (about three million people live on this island). It often rains and the weather can change quickly. Sometimes you can get many different kinds of weather in one day, especially on the South Island.

New Zealand has a lot of water, clean air and good earth and there are many farms. It is famous for its butter, cheese and meat, which it sells to Australia, the USA, Japan and the rest of Asia. For a long time, no people lived in New Zealand. The first people to make New Zealand their home were the Māori. They arrived from Polynesia in boats made of wood, called 'waka'. We don't know when they arrived, but some people think it was between 950 –1130 AD.

The Māori called New Zealand 'Aotearoa' or Land of the Long White Cloud. Around the year 1700 Europeans first came to New Zealand. Today thousands of people go to New Zealand on holiday. They go to see the beautiful countryside and to enjoy sports. While they are there, tourists can also learn about the Māori and hear many Māori stories about New Zealand. The Māori believe that the North Island looks like a fish, the South Island looks like Maui's waka and Stewart Island looks like the waka's anchor. The biggest business in New Zealand is now tourism.

My new hobby – gardening

A garden is much more than just creating a beautiful environment. It can be a way to save or even make money and, more than that, it can be a place where you can express yourself.

For me, it's a bit of all these things. I know it may sound strange for a 13-year-old to be interested in gardening but I always have been and I would love to make a career out of it. I have learnt many things these past few years I have been reading about and doing some gardening. First, you do not need to spend a lot of money to have a beautiful garden.

Some of the gardens I think are the prettiest are just lines of plants. There aren't many garden decorations and pathways. It's just beautiful plants loaded with fruits and vegetables. We can also find many useful things for free, from pieces of old wood, to old pots and pans. Or, we can build things for free from materials that other people have thrown away.

If you just remember that planting way more than you need will take the stress away of losing some plants, you will save yourself a lot of worry, too. You need to ask yourself, which plants produce enough food to make them worth growing. I actually sat down and did the maths on that one this spring. It amazed me what some plants were worth. A tomato, for example, can produce 50-150 pounds worth of fruit. It takes up a lot of space but that's a lot of money coming out of a 50 p seed! So if I had known sooner what each plant could save us, I would have told my parents to fill our garden with different plants.

And finally, gardening doesn't have to be all or nothing. But then I guess that's more of a personality weakness than anything. I struggle with doing things a little at a time. Once I decide to do something, I usually devote every waking hour to it for a little while and then get tired. So it's okay, to just have one tomato plant, and it's okay to have an off year. It will save you a lot of stress.

Achieving your dreams

1. _____ To you, I say, you are more able and amazing than you know. Follow your dream no matter how ambitious it may appear to others. It is the dreamers who bring positive change to the world. So if somebody doesn't support or understand your dream, just smile and think to yourself, "Don't believe me? Just watch!". Some people insist that the "rules of success" are very black and white. 2 _____

Following the rules may not be the best way to get you where you want to go. Your dream can be a very simple one, or a very complicated one. The truth is the world needs your dream to develop, so take a look at what I think are the truly important things to consider when following your dream.

You can try to be perfect, but one person's idea of what is perfect is always different from another's. In fact, I believe it is our weaknesses that make us special. You can be the most brilliant, talented person in the world, but if you lack the enthusiasm, passion and excitement for what you do, then it doesn't matter how good you are. You may not be the best at what you do, but if you have great enthusiasm, you will reach your goal. 3 _____ Enthusiasm created dreams; talent does not.

When you have a big dream for your life, people like to tell you that you aren't being realistic 4 _____. I think that when it comes to having a dream, being realistic and sensible aren't helpful. These are simply limitations that we have placed upon ourselves. When we experience a challenge, it is not a problem; it is part of the journey itself. Otherwise, it would not be there. Every step you take is one step closer to your dream becoming a reality. The important ingredient for realising your dream is hope. 5 _____. It can change the world.

1. What is the main idea of this text?

- Dreams make us stupid and unpractical.
- Dreaming embellishes our life.
- People dream only when they are young.
- Dreaming has its benefits and drawbacks.

2. Put these sentences into the correct place in the text. There are three sentences you don't need to use:

1. On the other hand, others who are more talented may not.
2. You should never try to do anything that is difficult.
3. Hope is belief – belief in yourself and belief in the power of possibility
4. Many of you may be afraid to do what you really love.
5. I believe that you should always obey the rules.
6. Well, I say that you do not need to know the details of how your dream will happen.
7. It is very important that you listen to this advice.
8. I disagree; I believe there is a Huge grey area.

3. Make a mind map with a root word “feeling” using the lexis of the text:

Freshly restaurant

Last week my parents and I visited Freshly, a modern British restaurant, in the centre of Brighton, Sussex. So it was the perfect opportunity to write a review for the school paper.

All of the ingredients used in Freshly come from Sussex and the surroundings area. It was also the first restaurant in the world to be serving only English wine. Since opening in 2018 Freshly has won many awards. The owner and head chef at the restaurant is only 24 years old and she has been cooking three-course meals for her family since she was nine and still at junior school. Jane did an apprenticeship at the famous Grand hotel, in Brighton, and later also went to catering school in London. She says this was one of the hardest courses she has ever done and sometimes she was so tired that she could hardly speak. Despite this, she never felt like giving up because she knew was following her dream.

Freshly is a small restaurant with a view over the back streets of Brighton where you can watch the world walk by. The staff are always welcoming. The head waiter is very informative about the food and how it is cooked and also from where all the ingredients have come from. The chefs are not scared to experiment, so the menu changes regularly. The chefs are lucky enough to be a team of good friends, and they try to eat out at different restaurants as often as they can. They take a lot of inspiration from their favourite chefs to make the Freshly experience as perfect as possible.

One thing to remember, however, is that you are limited to what they have that day on the menu. Freshly, however, will always cater for people with special food needs and vegetarians. The food is beautifully prepared and comes in small tasty portions. Wonderful homemade bread, too. Very nice – but expensive. For set menus with an extra cheeseboard, two bottles of water and 2 coffees will cost around 150 pounds without a tip. So yes, fine dining; but at a price.

1. What is the main purpose of this article?

- to provide readers with useful information about a new restaurant
- to underline the drawbacks of the restaurant
- to express a personal opinion about the restaurant
- to explain why the restaurant is expensive

2. Find the right answer for the following questions:

1. The food at Freshy

- A. is grown by the staff.
- B. comes from places in or close to Brighton.
- C. comes from all over the world.
- D. comes all over Britain

2. Where did the owner start to train as a chef?

- A. at junior school
- B. at university
- C. at home with the help of her family
- D. in a hotel

3. How did Jane feel while she was training to be a chef?

- A. She was really tired but felt positive about the experience.
- B. She wanted to give up because of the pressure.
- C. She wasn't sure if she would be successful.
- D. She found it quite easy to finish the training.

4. What is said about Freshly restaurant?

- A. The head waiter is in charge of the menu.

- B. The staff often change jobs because they like to do different things.
- C. It is a big and fancy restaurant with a great view.
- D. The staff have a very good relationship with each other.

5. What would Peter say about Freshly restaurant?

- A. Freshly restaurant may serve tasty food but it is extremely pricey – not worth it.
- B. A great effort from a successful young chef who supports local products.
- C. A famous chef that tried rather unsuccessfully to set up a different kind of restaurant.
- D. The cheerful staff and nice location are the only things that are worth mentioning.

3. Make a cluster with the root phrase “benefits of Freshly restaurant”
